What you gonna do now, listen

Hotel visits it's a dirty game
Lived a double life in school during the day
I hope that it all, all pays

No black-book romancing
Random strangers get the business
Not by choice, no just surviving
A mother and a fatherless child

The struggle was hard but she made it
Cap and gown now, degrees and majors
Already hired the story ends well
A lot of hell before heaven

Sometimes you'll have to play the game
Survival, survival of the fittest

Sometimes you'll have to play the game
If you wanna, if you wanna be a winner

Ooh, well

You may have to play the game
Repeat 3X

Groove/

You know what that is?

I looked at my hands and my hands looked new
I looked at my feet and my feet did too
I looked at my heart and I saw it was wrong
I had to forgive and move on..... [squal]
